Assalaamu-alaikum

We are pleased to welcome you to Ramadhan 2011, your indispensable pocket-sized guide to Ramadhan in Leicester!

At Ramadhan Publications our motto is 'setting standards, breaking boundaries'. Over the past few years we have set standards through the uncompromised quality of our publication, and we continue to break boundaries through our efforts to improve the way that the Muslim community is served, here and across the U.K.

Ramadhan 2011 has all the features that you have come to rely on over the past few years as you go through Ramadhan, such as prayer timetables, 'Ramadhan Essentials', information on products and services, and competitions. But we don't stop there – launching this year we have:

- our 'Deal of the Day' online Advent Calendar
- the new RP Discount Card
- a brand new Ramadhan Publications website
- Eid Mania, an RP sponsored event in Birmingham
- text message alerts on fast opening times

You can find more information on these in the booklet.

We are also very honoured this year to have a special message from the new City Mayor, Sir Peter Soulsby.

We hope that you enjoy and benefit from Ramadhan 2011. Please remember that this booklet is made possible by the generosity of our sponsors and advertisers – help us to keep it free by letting them know that you saw them here.

Finally, there are some fantastic prizes to be won, so don't forget to enter the competitions!

Tell us what you think! Email info@RamadhanPublications.co.uk

We wish you a blessed Ramadhan and joyous Eid!

message from

Peter Soulsby
Leicester City Mayor

Hello and Salaam,

As Leicester's first elected City Mayor I know that we face many challenges as a city and have much work to do. But I also know that we have many strengths and much to be proud of. Although we must never be complacent, we are a remarkably diverse and cohesive city where people of many different faiths and cultures live and work together.

As you enter the auspicious month of Ramadhan, I am delighted to have the opportunity to send a special message to the Muslims of Leicester.

On behalf of my team I wish you a peaceful and prosperous Ramadhan and look forward to a very happy Eid.

Ramadhan Essentials: A Brief Refresher

Pearls of Wisdom

The Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him (pbuh), said "Ramadhan has come to you. It is the month of blessing in which the Almighty envelops you (with His kindness). He forgives your sins and accepts your prayers. The Almighty witnesses you when you race one another (in virtuous deeds) in this month and becomes proud of you before His angels. Therefore, show the Almighty the best of deeds from your side, because unfortunate is that person who deprives himself from the Almighty's mercy in this month."

What is Ramadhan?

As the month in which the Quran was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) it is the most sacred and blessed month of the Islamic Calendar.

Fasting in Ramadhan is one of the five pillars of Islamic worship.

It is obligatory for healthy adult Muslims to spend each day in Ramadhan in a complete fast during daylight hours.

Ramadhan is a period of reflection, devotion, generosity, and sacrifice, and a time for re-evaluating our lives in the light of Islamic guidance.

What is fasting and why do we do it?

Fasting in Islam is the act of abstaining from eating, drinking and intimate relations from the break of dawn until the setting of the sun. The Arabic word for fasting, sawm, literally means 'to refrain'. As stated in Chapter 2 Verse 183 of the Holy Quran fasting was prescribed for Muslims "...as it was prescribed to those before you, that you may learn self-restraint".

Through fasting we are able to strengthen ourselves physically and spiritually and as a result draw closer to our Lord.

Fasting has many other benefits, which include:

- developing empathy for those who go without food and water,
- recognising and giving thanks for the blessings we have in our lives,
- becoming more charitable both with our money and in our manner,
- replacing bad habits and routines with more positive ones.

Ramadhan Essentials: The Benefits of Ramadhan

Pearls of Wisdom

The Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him (pbuh), said "Ramadhan has come to you. It is the month of blessing in which the Almighty envelops you (with His kindness). He forgives your sins and accepts your prayers. The Almighty witnesses you when you race one another (in virtuous deeds) in this month and becomes proud of you before His angels. Therefore, show the Almighty the best of deeds from your side, because unfortunate is that person who deprives himself from the Almighty's mercy in this month."

Spiritual Development in Ramadhan

As shown with the above hadith, God makes it easier for us to gain blessings and rewards in Ramadhan; this month provides us with an opportunity for intensive spiritual development that is not available at any other time of year or through any other form of worship. As we go through the day refraining from food and drink, and suffering thirst and hunger, we receive constant reminders of why we are going through such hardship – we are doing it for our Lord. As a result we become more mindful of the presence of God in our life, and the fact that we must stand before Him one day to account for it.

Our spiritual development is also strengthened through the very act of abstaining from food, drink, and intimate relationships; by refraining from indulging our primal needs we are raised above the level of animals and given an affinity to angels, who have no such needs

Fasting promotes piety and righteousness, develops the ability to control our physical desires, and re-affirms our obedience to the Will of God. Fasting, therefore, is simultaneously one of the most challenging and effective forms of worship in the development of our souls.

Ramadhan Resolutions

There is no better time than now to make resolutions for bettering ourselves, during the holy month and beyond.

- Prioritise Prayer – put salah and Quran first to connect with the Almighty.
- Give Generously – be it with money, time, effort, or patience.
- Free with Forgiveness – seek it and give it, let go and move on.
- Have Healthier habits – take better care of your physical self.
- Nurture the Next Generation – get the children involved.
- Maintain Momentum – don't lose what you have gained; keep up the good work as much as you can after Ramadhan.

Ramadhan Essentials: Rules to Remember

Pearls of Wisdom

On the importance of good behaviour Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said "Many people gain nothing from their fast save thirst and hunger"

"The one who cannot shun evil and falsehood (during fast), the Almighty has no need for him to go without food and drink."

Who must Fast?

Fasting during the month of Ramadhan is obligatory for every healthy Muslim over the age of puberty.

Those who suffer from a severe mental or physical illness and children under the age of puberty are not obligated to fast.

The following groups can suspend their fasting and make restitution (qazaa) by fasting for the number of days equal to those missed any time before the next Ramadhan:

- people undertaking a strenuous or lengthy journey,
- women who are menstruating, pregnant, experiencing post-natal discharges or breastfeeding, and
- people who are advised not to fast due to a temporary illness.

Please consult an Imam if you are unsure as to whether you are obligated to fast, or are permitted to miss or delay fasting.

What invalidates a fast?

If you eat, drink, or engage in intimate relations during your fast, this will invalidate (break) the fast and you will have to make restitution.

If you do any of this accidentally (i.e. you forget that you are fasting) and stop once you realise your mistake your fast will remain intact.

Please consult an Imam if you are unsure as to whether something you have done has broken your fast and/or want to know what type of restitution you need to undertake for breaking it.

Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said "Five things spoil a person's fast: lying, slander, backbiting, ungodly oaths, and looking with passion".

To get the maximum benefits of fasting, it is important to remember that fasting is not just about controlling one's physical appetites but about restraining immoral behaviour too.

Ramadhan Essentials: Fasting from Start to finish

Pearls of Wisdom

On the virtues of suhur

Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said

"Make suhur because there is bounty (barakah) in the making of suhur. Verily the Almighty and His angels send mercy upon those who eat suhur." On the blessings at the time of iftar Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said "The supplications made by a fasting person until the time of completing his fast are accepted."

Starting the Fast?

It was a practice (sunnah) of the Prophet (pbuh) to eat before the fast began at dawn; this is known as 'suhur'.

If you feel unable to eat a meal at suhur, it is recommended practice to at least wake and have some water and dates.

You must state your intention to fast. This can be in Arabic or in your own language – for example, you may say: "Oh Almighty! Tomorrow I shall be fasting for you".

If you do not make the intention before dawn, you may make it up an hour or two before noon (zawwal) provided that you have not done anything that is not allowed during the fast (e.g. eating).

The fast begins at the moment the sun begins to appear over the horizon (sub-ha-sadiq); you must not do anything that will invalidate the fast after this time.

Ending the Fast?

The fast ends at the moment the sun begins to set; this is also the time for Maghrib prayer and is known as 'Iftar'.

You should break the fast immediately at the time of iftar, or as soon as possible afterwards – delaying it is not permitted.

The prayer to say when breaking your fast is "Allahuma inni laka sumtu wa bika aamantu wa 'alayka tawakkaltu wa 'ala rizq-ika aftarthu"; this translates as "Oh Almighty! I fasted for you and I believe in you [and I put my trust in You] and I break my fast with your sustenance".

Ramadhan Essentials: The Power of Prayer

Pearls of Wisdom

The Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said "Whosoever fasts during the month of Ramadhan with faith and hope of reward, all his past sins will be forgiven; and whosoever stands up in prayer in Ramadhan with faith and hope of reward, all his past sins will be forgiven; and whosoever stands up in worship during the Night of Power (Laylat-ul-Qadr) with faith and a hope of reward, all his sins will be forgiven."

Ramadhan provides abundant opportunities for prayer, and with it comes an abundance of reward and forgiveness. Increase the power of your prayers by taking advantage of these Ramadhan-only events.

Taraawih

The special night prayer during Ramadhan is called Taraawih. In it, the Quran is recited from start to finish during the course of Ramadhan.

Taraawih is performed after the obligatory night prayer Isha. It has 20 cycles ('rakah'), usually performed in ten sets of two rakah per set.

The Taraawih prayer is a means of drawing closer to God, as standing nightly through Ramadhan listening to every word of the Quran being recited should awaken the heart of the listener.

I'tikaaf

I'tikaaf means 'to stay in a place'. It was the practice of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) to spend the final days of Ramadhan in the environs of the masjid devoting himself exclusively to the remembrance of God.

I'tikaaf is a concentrated method of worship. It is most common to spend the last ten days of Ramadhan in I'tikaaf, although you can do less or even more according to your ability.

Laylat-ul-Qadr

This is the Night of Power described in the Quran (Surah 97): The Night of Power is better than a thousand months. Therein come down the angels and the Spirit by God's permission, on every errand; Peace! Until the break of dawn".

The Prophet (pbuh) said to "seek the Night of Power on an odd [night] amongst the last then [nights] of Ramadhan". People will spend the whole night in worship until it is time for the suhur.

Ramadhan Essentials: Time to Celebrate!

An Eid Prayer

May the Almighty on the occasion of Eid give us the guidance to resolve that we make the Quran and Sunnah our guiding lights and practice Islam as much as possible in our daily lives. Ameen

What is Eid?

Eid' means festival or celebration. Muslims celebrate two Eid each year: Eid-ul-Fitr marks the end of Ramadhan, and Eid-ul-Adha marks the end of Hajj (the major pilgrimage).

Eid-ul-Fitr is a reward from the Almighty for spending the month of Ramadan fasting and performing other forms of worship (ibadah).

How do Muslims celebrate Eid?

After the intense religious introspection and fasting of Ramadhan, Eid is an opportunity to relax and have fun, celebrate our faith, and enjoy the company of friends and family. People visit one another's homes, share food, and indulge each other - especially the children - with gifts and money.

Eid is celebrated differently by the many different Muslim communities across the world, but there are some Eid practices that Muslims of all background have in common.

All Muslims who are able to will start the day with the Eid Salah (prayer), a special two-part prayer and sermon held in the morning.

People will practice the sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) as they prepare for the salah. These are to:

- wake up early in the morning and take a bath (ghusl),
- put on one's best available clothes and wear perfume (ittr),
- eat a sweet food (preferably dates) before the Eid prayer, and
- recite takbir (proclaiming The Almighty's Greatness) in a low voice on the way to Eid prayer.

The charitable acts that abound in Ramadhan continue on Eid day with the sadaqat-ul-fitr, a payment made to charity especially on Eid by all who can afford it.

Eid is also a time to reflect on what we have been through in the past and what is to come in our lives, and many people will take this time to visit the graves of loved one who have passed away.

"It is our responsibility as members of the Muslim Ummah to fight oppression and injustice."

(peaceful families.org)

You CAN do something about it

Domestic violence can include:

Forced Marriage - Female Genital Mutilation - Bullying - Isolation From Family And Friends
Forced Sexual Acts - Financial Abuse

It damages individuals and communities
It is against the teachings of Islam

Ramadhan Bites

Tentalising Chicken Dish

Grilled Chicken with Corriander Garlic Sauce

Chicken breast	4	Garlic paste	1 tbsp
Salt & white pepper	to taste	Coriander leaves	½ bunch
Cooking Oil	100ml	Butter	100 grams

Method:

Marinate fresh chicken breast with pepper for 1 hour or over night. Heat Cooking Oil and shallow fry the marinated chicken breast for 10 minutes on high flame turning twice. Add salt in last 3 minutes of cooking. Set aside.

Sauce:

Heat butter in a pan and saute' garlic paste until golden brown. Add chopped coriander leaves, remove it from heat and pour it on cooked chicken breast.

Serve with steamed, carrots and beans or vegetables of choice.

Delightful Desert

Carrot Halwa

1 kg Grated Carrot
1 ltr Milk	2 Tbsp ghee
200g Full cream powdered milk	½ cup fruits and nuts
2 cups sugar	½ tsp Cardamom powder

Method:

Put milk, grated carrots in a saucepan and bring to boil
Cover over medium heat until all the milk gets dried up
Continue stirring to prevent any sticking or burning
Add sugar, cardamom powder, ¼ cup fruits and nuts and stir for 5-7 minutes.
Add ghee and full cream powdered milk. Stir well and fry on a low heat until ghee starts separating. Decorate with remaining fruit and nuts serve hot
