Assalaamu-alaikum

We've been honoured to share the last three Ramadhans with you and are excited to be back for a fourth. You could say we've become old friends!

But just because our friendship is old, it doesn't mean the book has to be! With our motto 'Setting Standards, Breaking Boundaries' you know we like to keep things fresh, and we've been busy working on some exciting new developments.

First, we've teamed up with islamicposters.com to overhaul our 'Ramadhan Essentials' pages. We hope you like the new format and trust you will find them just as informative as ever.

Second, we've taken over Muslim Competitions and have more prizes on offer than ever before – don't miss out on your chance to win!

Third, we have packed our scratch-card with a fresh batch of offers and discounts to help you make the most of your money this Ramadhan.

With all this inside and more, including a wide range of prayer timetables, we hope Ramadhan 2012 will be your indispensable pocket-sized guide to Ramadhan in Leicester!

Remember that this booklet is made possible by the generosity of our sponsors and advertisers. Please help us to keep it free by letting them know that you saw their ad here.

Tell us what you think! Email info@RamadhanPublications.co.uk

Don't forget to like us on Facebook for your chance to be entered into a prize draw.

We pray you have blessed Ramadhan and a joyous Eid, and look forward to seeing you again next year!

A message from

Peter Soulsby

Leicester city mayor

At the start of the sacred month of Ramadhan I am grateful for the opportunity to send a message to all the Muslims of Leicester.

Ramadhan is a time for families, friends and neighbours to gather together. It is also a time of reflection and for helping others, especially those less fortunate than ourselves.

Leicester is a very special city, richly diverse and proud of it. As city mayor, I value our cultural diversity and recognise the huge contribution made by our many different faiths.

Like all cities we face difficult challenges, especially in these tough economic times. However, one of our strengths is the level of cohesion between our communities. We saw it in this year's celebrations of the Queen's diamond jubilee and the Olympic torch relay; we see it every day in schools and workplaces.

This is something we can all take pride in – but not take for granted. By working together we are helping to create a better city.

My very best wishes for a blessed Ramadhan and peace and happiness throughout the year.

THE FIVE PILLARS OF ISLAM

1

SHAHAADAH

(Testimony)

Declaration of Faith

Muslims declare their faith by saying:
"Ash hadu anlaa ilaaha illallaahu
wa ash hadu anna muhammadar rasulallah"

Which means "I bear witness that there is no god except Allaah and I bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allaah."

The religion of Islam requires accepting some main Articles of Faith. These are the core beliefs - without any one of these, one would not be accepted as a believer. The acceptance of these Articles leads to the practical five Pillars of Islam.

The Five Pillars of Islam are the Fundamental duties in a Muslims life, which lead to living a good and responsible life according to Islam.

SALAAH

(Prayer)

Five Compulsory Daily Prayers

A physical and mental means of worship prescribed five times a day. These are to remember God and to seek forgiveness throughout the day. We face towards the Holy Ka'bah in Makkah. Salaat (Prayer) is performed at set times: before sunrise, at midday, in the afternoon, in the evening after the sunsets and at nightfall.

ZAKAAT

(Purity or Charity)

Almsgiving

The Arabic word Zakaat means to purify. Muslims give 2.5% of their surplus wealth to charity every year. This shows obedience to God and prevents greed. Zakaat is given to the poor and those that are less fortunate than ourselves. It is believed that by giving charity, the possessions you keep are made pure.

4

SAWM

(Fasting)

Fasting During the Month of Ramadhaan

For one month of the Year, Muslims refrain from food, drink and keep away from things that distract us from worship. This is done during the day from dawn till dusk. Although fasting is beneficial to health, fasting is a form of worship. Additionally it helps us to remember others who are less fortunate and do not have much food or water.

5

HAJJ

(Pilgrimage)

Pilgrimage to the Holy Sites in Makkah

Hajj is the journey to the holy sites in Makkah to perform various rituals. It is only obligatory once in a life time upon those who have the financial means and are physically able. The pilgrims adorn simple garment that strip away any distinctions of class and culture, so they all stand equal before Allah (God). The final part of the pilgrimage is at the Holy Ka'bah (cube) in the centre of the Great Mosque in Makkah.

Enjoy Leicester

Leicester truly is the city of festivals. Whether it's sport, live music, dance or history, there's something for everyone here.

From the live Olympic Games coverage and summer of sport activity in Humberstone Gate to one of the country's biggest Caribbean carnivals to the well-known Castle Park Festival and spectacular firework displays, you'd be hard pushed to find a city which has such a diverse range of festivals and attractions.
