Assalaamu-alaykum and Ramadhan Mubarak

Dear readers, and welcome to another edition of THE Ramadhan guide!

We at Ramadhan Publications are celebrating a seventh year of the publication. The guide as always remains indispensable – packed with information, advice, and prayer timetables. Ramadhan 2015 is here to help you make the most of your month.

As ever, we thank our sponsors and advertisers for their continued support, which has kept us going strong! So please let them know you saw them here when you pay them a visit.

Thanks to them, this year we have a raft of fresh prizes on offer! Go to our website ramadhanpublications.co.uk and enter the competition to win yourself an Apple watch, and visit our Facebook page to win one of many other prizes by liking and sharing our page.

While you're visiting us, say salaams and share your feedback – we would love to hear from you! And if you're a smart-phone user don't forget to download iFast, the mobile phone app (available on apple and android) which will help you to fast, pray, and give at the touch of a button.

We have reached that time when Ramadhan will cover the longest day of the year. Yet although the days are long the month will no doubt feel short. So let us remember that the blessings, virtues, and benefits of this holy month should be valued and spent with utmost care in order to acquire the Nearness and Pleasure of the Almighty.

We pray that you have a blessed Ramadhan and happy Eid.

Peter Soulsby

Leicester City Mayor

I'm delighted to have been re-elected as Leicester's City Mayor. Leicester has been my home for nearly 50 years and I am immensely proud of all that we have achieved. I look forward to serving the city for the next four years and continuing to build on all that was achieved in my last term.

Today, as we enter the holy month of Ramadan, I would like to send warm greetings to all the Muslims in Leicester.

At this time of prayer and contemplation, Muslims come together to break the fast and to remember those who are in need. It is a time for charity and compassion, and for cherishing family and friends.

I am proud that in Leicester we value our cultural diversity and work hard to maintain cohesion between communities. This is not something we take for granted. Everyone has a part to play in creating a strong and prosperous city.

We recognise the importance and contribution of different cultures and faiths, and we are stronger for it. We can celebrate the cohesion between communities, understanding that this is something we all continue to develop and support.

As you prepare for this sacred month, may I take this opportunity to wish you a peaceful and blessed Ramadan.

Ramadhan Refresher

O people, there comes upon you a great month, a most blessed month, in which lies a night greater in worth than one thousand months.

Ramadhan is the month in which the Quran, the holy book of Islam, was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him (pbuh). It is the most sacred and blessed month of the Islamic calendar. Fasting in the month of Ramadhan is obligatory for healthy adult muslims and one who misses it without any religious reason commits a grave sin.

This is indeed the month of patience, and the reward for true patience is Heaven. The doors of Heaven are opened on the first night of Ramadhan. Not a single door is closed until the last night of Ramadhan.

What is Fasting and Why do we fast?

Fasting means abstain from eating, drinking, smoking and sexual activities from dawn to sunset. Fasting in the month of Ramadhan keeps us away from the sins.

Through fasting we are able to strengthen ourselves physically and spiritually and as a result draw closer to our Lord. Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said: "Whoever fasts during Ramadan out of sincere faith and hoping to attain The Almighty's rewards, then all his past sins will be forgiven."

Who keeps the fast?

Fasting during the month of Ramadhan is obligatory for every healthy Muslim over the age of puberty. Those who suffer from a severe mental or physical illness and children under the age of puberty are not obligated to fast.

Some groups are permitted to postpone fasting: these are people on a journey; women who are pregnant, breastfeeding, or menstruating; and people who cannot fast due to temporary illness.

People that cannot fast at all – for example, due to an ongoing medical condition - are able to feed a poor person as an alternative.
